Dear Requester

Thank you for your request for information dated 04/02/2026 about how many homeowners (Right to Buy) have told the council of their intention to sell since the rules came into force on August 10 2005. We have dealt with this under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Response

The council holds the information requested. However we are withholding the information because it is exempt as explained below. We have explained where we are withholding information and what exemptions apply.

I understand that since August 2005, owners of homes sold under Right To Buy rules within 10 years have had to apply to the council for a right of first refusal.
Under this Statutory Instrument: https://www.legislation.gov.uk/uksi/2005/1917/made
I would like to ask how many homeowners have told the council of their intention to sell since the rules came into force on August 10 2005 to the date this request is received. I would like this data broken down by calendar year, if possible.
I would also like to ask how many times the council exercised its Right To First Refusal (as under Section 156 A of the Housing Act 1985) for each year between 2005 to the date this request is received, broken down by calendar year.
If the data is not available from August 10, 2005, please provide it from as far back as you are able to, to the date this request is received.

Thank you for your recent request made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Your request is considered invalid under the provision of the Act.

We have withdrawn your request because requests defined by the Section 12 cost limits are invalid under section 8(1)(c) of the Act. The scope of a request is determined by the extent of the record search required within those cost constraints. For this reason, requests framed by time are not considered valid.

In other words to progress your request, you would need to remove the following sentence from a future request, 'If the data is not available from August 10, 2005, please provide it from as far back as you are able to, to the date this request is received.'

Please reconsider your request, bearing in mind the advice above, and submit a new request to https://www.camden.gov.uk/formal-enquiry or FOI@camden.gov.uk
